

Idaho State UNIVERSITY

Early College Program

Extra Credit Teacher Scholarship

Application Deadline Extended: August 1, 2017

ISU Credit Union in partnership with ISU Early College Program is awarding a scholarship up to $2,000 to a high school teacher working to obtain a Masters Degree.

Criteria for award:

- Applicant must be employed by a secondary school district in Idaho
- Applicant must be admitted to an ISU Graduate Program (in the subject they will teach)
- Applicant must be registered for courses to be awarded
- Applicant must be currently teaching for the Early College Program OR upon approval from the department, be willing to teach dual credit courses for the Early College Program
- Applicant must be willing to teach dual credit courses for a minimum of three years, while concurrently obtaining a Masters degree or upon completion of a Masters degree (depending on when the department gives approval)
- Priority will be given to individuals who are close to degree completion
- Priority will be given to ISUCU members
- This is a non-renewable award, although previous award winners may re-apply
- This award cannot be used in conjunction with another scholarship/fee waiver

Name: _____ Bengal Number: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Email Address: _____ Phone _____

Name of High School Currently Teaching: _____

Total Credits Needed for Program Completion: _____ Total Credits Earned: _____

Course(s) ex: ENGL 5570	Course Title ex: Post Colonial Literature	Credits	Semester and Year

In addition to application:

1. Attach a current transcript (unofficial is ok-you can get this in BengalWeb)
2. Teaching philosophy statement to include discussion on teaching dual credit course(s)
3. Letter of support from high school administrator stating the applicant would be supported to teach dual credit upon approval from the corresponding department

Applicant Signature _____ Date _____

HS Admin Signature _____ Date _____

Send application postmarked by deadline to: ISU ECP, 921 S. 8th Ave STOP 8057, Pocatello, ID 83209