

Historical Thinking Objectives		HIST 6600	All 5000-level courses	HIST 6620, 6645, 6650
1	Identify major trends, theories, and approaches in the field of History;	I	R	M
2	Analyze and synthesize ongoing scholarly conversations in History and situate their arguments and projects in these contexts;	I	R	M
3	Understand the range of digital resources available to historians and be able to use their chosen resources in producing and presenting research;	I	R	M
4	Define, research, and complete a significant research project within History studies, and be able to describe and justify their project in written and presentation formats.	I	R	M
	I = Introduce
	R = Reinforce
	M = Master				